

10 Moments on the Main

TAKE A STROLL THROUGH THE HISTORY OF SAINT-LAURENT BOULEVARD

Symbolic dividing line between French and English-speaking Montreal, corridor of immigration and symbol of cultural diversity, a space for artistic and technological creativity, a laboratory of ideas and of radical politics, Saint-Laurent Boulevard – “The Main” – is recognized as a national historic site of Canada and as a central place in the collective memory of Montreal. This audioguide, Ten Moments on the Main, invites you to discover the richness and the diversity of Saint-Laurent Boulevard through its history, its population, and its architecture.

10 MOMENTS

- 1 The Terrace of the Anglo-Protestant Bourgeoisie
Northeast corner of Sherbrooke Street
- 2 From Sweatshops to Multimedia Companies
Facing Milton Street, in front of 3451 Saint-Laurent
- 3 The Balfour Building: the Garment Industry and Labour Activism
Northwest corner of Prince-Arthur Street
- 4 The Baxter Block
In front of 3679 Saint-Laurent
- 5 The Heart of the Old Jewish Neighbourhood
Northwest corner of Bagg Street
- 6 From Yiddish to Contemporary Expressions of Culture
Southwest corner of Duluth Avenue
- 7 Saint-Jean-Baptiste, a Nineteenth-Century Suburb
Southwest corner of Rachel Street
- 8 Colours and Perfumes of Portugal: the Historic Portuguese District
In front of the Parc du Portugal on the corner of Marie-Anne
- 9 Design on the Main: Furniture, Shop Interiors and Fashion
Opposite 4398 Saint-Laurent
- 10 Mile End
Southeast corner of Mont-Royal Avenue

Download

You can download the audio tracks from the web site mainaudioguide.ca

Start

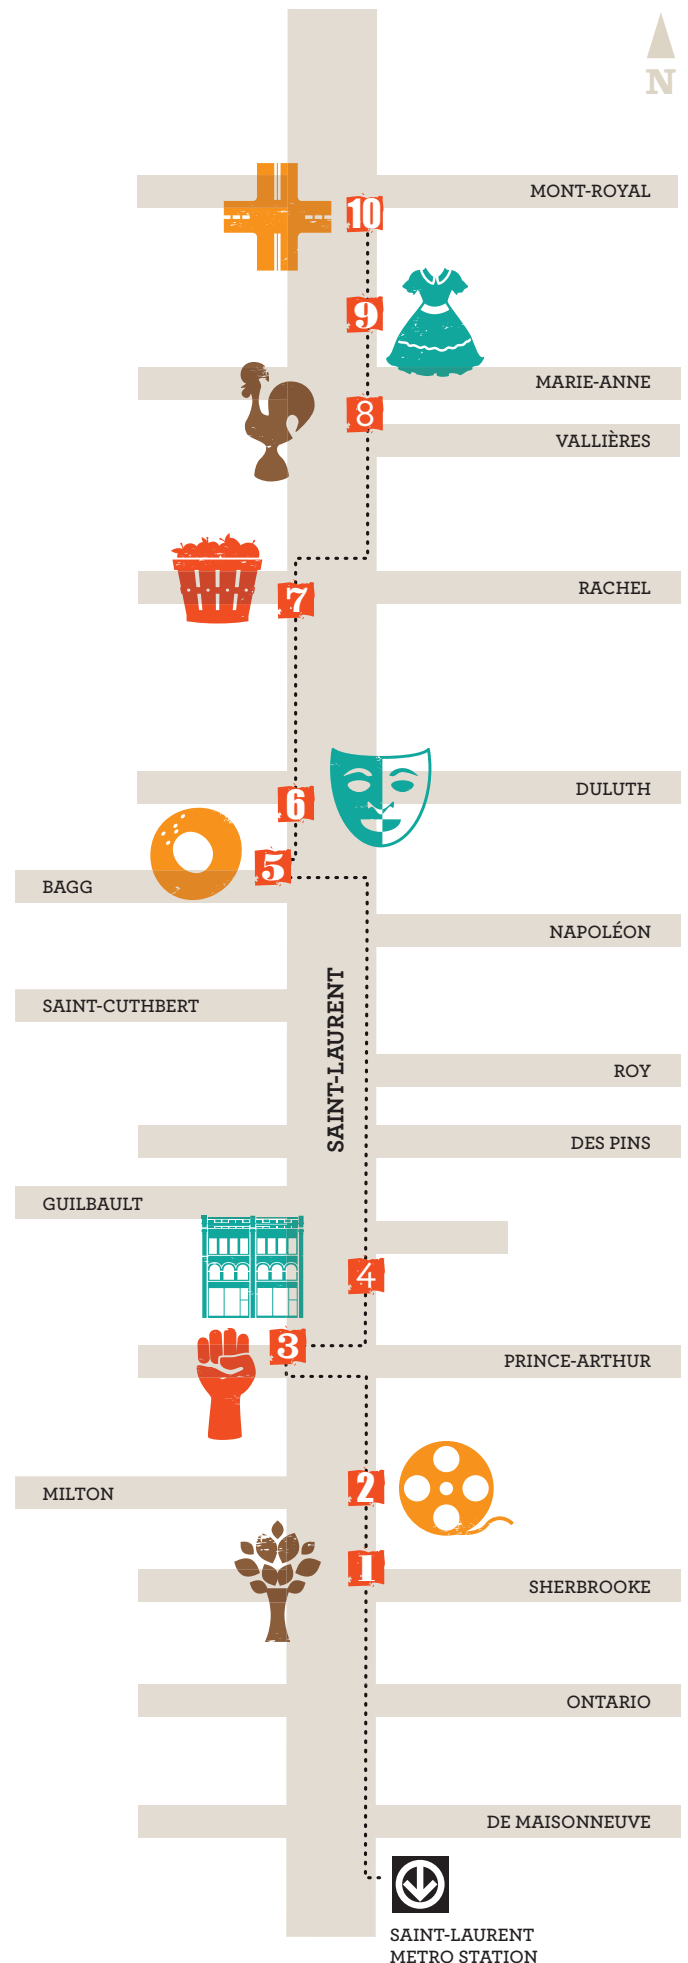

At Saint-Laurent metro station

End

On the corner of Mont-Royal Avenue

Duration

The walking tour can be completed in less than an hour

SAINT-LAURENT METRO STATION